

New! New! New!

impromptu weekday rides

Your ride leaders will be offering weekday rides, including some possible evening rides later in the year.

Here's what you need to know:

- the rides will be on random days, depending on the ride leaders
- they will be publicised via facebook and email, usually the day before
- this is a trial run to see how it goes

So keep watching your email, and/or our facebook (and if a friend isn't online, keep them informed)
