

Walsall Area Cycling membership rules

New riders are allowed to ride three times FOC before joining Walsall Area Cycling, the cost of joining is just £2 per year. However they will have NO 3rd party insurance in the event of a claim being made against them, members have the option to take out personal insurance with Cycling UK.

Details and pricing on the Cycling UK website: www.cyclinguk.org

Joining Walsall Area Cycling by paying £2 per year does not automatically entitle members to ride with other affiliated groups though the rules of other groups may allow them to, if the option of buying insurance from CTC is taken, members are entitled to ride with any Cycling UK member groups.
